ABOUT

Peng Lin, VIVA's Founder, CEO and Tea Lover, grew up in Aarhus, Denmark and previously owned a software company. In September 2010, Peng wondered why it's seemingly complicated to find fine tea and similarly difficult to find aesthetically pleasing tea-ware to compliment the fine tea it carries.

He had a vision and aspiration to revitalize the traditions of tea and cultivating a modernized and elevated experience. And rightly so, he began from the ground up by running a successful houseware factory, which over the years has become the go-to supplier for luxury houseware brands around the world. Capitalizing on his extensive experience with manufacturing and supplying for these brands, he launched VIVA products to fill a market gap of premium tea-centric drinkware and accessories.

VIVA offers everything to relax, reflect or socialize over the perfect tea serving. We started with the perfect teapot, from there we created a full range of tea accessories for different social interactions, styles, personalities and colour palettes. At VIVA we don't simply produce drinking vessels. In fact, behind every cup, strainer, or teapot we dedicate a significant amount of time and resources in research and development with nothing but our tea lovers' needs in mind, reflecting our Scandinavian design roots and cosiness. From the size of the spout to the fine patterns of the infuser, using premium sustainable materials and world-class craftsmanship, our products are made to last. We consistently push ourselves to achieve the perfect, holistic tea experience.
